INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT

V. Reasoned statement under Rule 66.2(a)(ii) with regard to novelty, inventive step or industrial applicability; citations and explanations supporting such statement

1. STATEMENT

Novelty (N)

Claims 1-70 YES

Claims NONE NO

Inventive Step (IS)

Claims 1-70 YES

Claims NONE NO

Industrial Applicability (IA)

Claims 1-70 YES

Claims NONE NO

2. CITATIONS AND EXPLANATIONS

The following references as cited on the ISR are discussed:

D1: Priola et al. (US 4,107,417)

D2: Welch et al. (US 2,548,415)

D3: Calfee et al. (US 2,534,698)

Claims 1-70 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(2)-(3), because the prior art does not teach or fairly suggest the claimed copolymer which has the required $g'_{vis,avg}$. Each of D1-D3 discloses polymers of isoolefins and multiolefins which appear to be "substantially free of long chain branching"; however, the reference disclosures contain no indication that the polymers described therein contain the claimed value of $g'_{vis,avg}$. Furthermore, the methods described in the specification for obtaining the claimed polymers are sufficiently different from those described in the cited references that no clear basis for concluding that the reference polymers inherently contain the claimed properties can be found.

Claims 1-70 meet the criteria set out in PCT Article 33(4), and thus have industrial applicability because the subject matter claimed can be made or used in industry.
